40-yr-old businessman shot at during robbery bid

A 40-year-old businessman was shot at during a robbery bid in Roop Nagar area of Civil Lines late on Wednesday night. One of the three assailants who attacked him was arrested by the police.

The police said Sanjeev Bhutani, who has a shop in Civil Lines, was returning home on his scooter in Roop Nagar from Sadanand Marg on Wednesday night. He was carrying Rs 2 lakh in his bag. When he reached Roop Nagar, the robbers who were riding a motorcycle intercepted him and tried to snatch his bag.

Bhutani resisted and even chased the fleeing robbers on his scooter, said a police officer. The assailants first fired in the air to scare him but when they saw that he was not giving up, they fired at him. Bhutani suffered two bullet injuries in his stomach. He fell down but by then a PCR van that was stationed nearby arrived at the spot.

Maoists blast two schools in Bihar

Armed Maoists blew up two school buildings here early on Thursday. Over 200 ultras surrounded a State-run school at Chandaur and blasted the building with dynamites in the wee hours.

In another attack, the Naxalites detonated dynamites to blow up another school building at Belowa early on Thursday morning.

However, there are no reports of any injury or casualty. A combing operation has been launched in the area to nab the ultras.

10 PDD workers injured in lathicharge

At least 10 protesting daily wage employees of the Power Development Department (PDD) were injured when the police lathicharged the protesters here yesterday.

The PDD daily wage workers are on an indefinite strike for the last one month demanding regularisation of their services.

Yesterday, the PDD workers had planned to march to the Civil Secretariat as part of their Civil Secretariat gherao campaign. Earlier, they had been holding protests at the office of Development Commissioner, Janipur.

The protesters were cane charged at Jewel Chowk and Gummet when they were marching towards the Civil Secretariat in a rally. Three protesters were seriously injured and admitted to the Government Medical College Hospital (GMCH).

The protesters clashed with the police when they were stopped at Jewel Chowk. As the protesters reached near Gummet in a procession, the police again stopped them as Section 144 was in place in the area.

Villagers block highway for 2nd day

For the second consecutive day yesterday, residents of Chan Khatriya village in Hiranagar tehsil of Kathua district blocked the Jammu-Pathankot National Highway for more than three hours in protest against alleged police inaction in a missing person case.

Relatives of Ashok Singh, who has been missing since December 25, along with local villagers assembled around 11:30 am and blocked the highway for more than three hours in the Ghagwal area.

Though they were later pacified by the civil administration officers, the protesters again blocked traffic near Samba district.
