Family held captive, Rs 11 lakh robbed

About a dozen armed men looted Rs 11 lakh from the house of a scrap trader just 400 metres from the Dadri police station in the wee hours of Tuesday. The intruders made captive all family members before decamping with Rs 30,000 and valuables worth Rs 11 lakh. The heist took place around 2 am.

According to Islamuddin, his mother suddenly fell ill in the night and when he came out of his room to see her, about a dozen armed bandits put a revolver on his forehead and then made everybody captive. The dacoits brought him to the second floor and repeatedly asked him about Rs 50 lakh.

All inmates were beaten up and tied. The intruders then ransacked the house and took away Rs 30,000 and jewellery worth Rs 11 lakh, which Islamuddin had got for his sister's marriage.

Ring Road robbers caught

With the arrest of two persons, the south-west district police has claimed to have busted a gang of robbers allegedly involved in various robberies on Ring Road between Punjabi Bagh and Dhaula Kuan and on Outer Ring Road from Peera Garhi to Janakpuri.

The police revealed that the accused used to go out in their Santro car after 10 pm to look for people in need of some conveyance on Ring Road and Outer Ring Road. Seeing some one alone, they would force him to sit in their car and then would loot him. If they found ATM cards, they would force the victim to withdraw cash for them.

They had robbed around 20-25 people on Ring Road from Punjabi Bagh to Dhula Kuan and on Outer Ring Road from Peera Garhi to Janakpuri since January 2010 in the same car.

Gurgaon metro line opens June 21

It's official now. The long-awaited Gurgaon Metro line will be opened to commuters on June 21. The first trains from the two end-stations - Qutub Minar and Huda City Centre - will leave at 8am, bringing the satellite township closer to the Capital. For residents of Gurgaon, the line will also provide a much-needed mode of commute within the town.

Half of the Qutub Minar-Gurgaon stretch (7.3km) is across the Delhi border. The fully elevated section has 10 stations, located at Qutub Minar, Chhattarpur, Sultanpur, Ghittorni, Arjanganrh, Guru Dronacharya, Sikanderpur, MG Road, IFFCO Chowk and HUDA City Centre. Presently, trains will stop at all stations except Chhattarpur, which is still being constructed. The Chhattarpur station is likely to be opened by August. The construction of the station was delayed as the land for the building could not be acquired by DMRC till October last year. The DMRC is now constructing the station in record time using pre-fabricated steel structures.

Terror alert at airports

The Bureau of Civil Aviation Security has sounded an alert against a possible terrorist strike.

“The BCAS has issued an alert for a terror strike at the Indian airports,” officials here said.

The alert was issued on June 14. A spokesperson said vigil was being mounted at all airports, though no “fresh” alert was issued.

Airlines and airport operators were asked to be vigilant. Security at the airport here, one of the busiest, was stepped up.

Heavy rain lashes city, 8 killed as building wall crashes in Thane

Tragedy struck during the very first spell of heavy rains this monsoon with nine people dying in the vicinity of construction sites in Mumbai and Thane on Wednesday. Forty-six people have died across the state since the monsoon began.

There were traffic jams at several spots, especially on LBS Marg, and water-logging in chronic areas like Hindmata, Parel. Flights were delayed from early morning at the airport, with a cascading effect continuing through the day.

Maoist hideout raided, 8 killed

At least eight Maoists, including three women, were killed in an encounter when security force personnel raided a forest hideout in the Salboni block of West Bengal's Paschim Medinipur district early on Wednesday.

Superintendent of Police Manoj Kumar Verma claimed that it was one of the most successful operations in the region since the crackdown on the Maoists began a year ago.

There was no casualty among the security forces. The security personnel arrested an injured Maoist and recovered a huge cache of firearms, explosives, landmines and Maoist literature.

Swine flu desks at Coimbatore airport, railway station soon

Allaying fears of the A (H1N1) epidemic spilling over from Kerala, Director of Public Health R.T. Porkaipandian said on Wednesday that the government would soon set up swine flu desks at the Coimbatore airport and railway station.

These desks would come up in two-three days. Thermal body scanners, he clarified, would not be installed at the airport to screen visitors who fly in.

He explained there had been 3,096 positive cases in 2009, but in 2010, there were only three cases, one from Coimbatore, and the other two from Kanyakumari (One this month, and the other, last month).

Bomb recovered in Ranchi pond

A low intensity bomb was recovered from a pond in Bariatu area of Ranchi that was later defused, police said Wednesday.

According to police, some locals were swimming in a pond when they found a bag containing a cylindrical pot. A bomb was found inside the pot.

Bomb disposal squad exploded the bomb in a secluded place. The explosion of the bomb was loud and it could have done much damage in residential areas. On the last fortnight, Ranchi police have recovered bombs from various parts of the city. On June 8, police averted an attempt to perhaps target the passport office building by recovering three bombs from an auto-rickshaw near the office.

On June 7, police recovered 275 gelatin sticks, 10 detonators and other materials used in preparing bombs from Hazaribgh road railway station of Giridih district.

On June 5, police recovered four Improvised Explosive Devices (IED), each weighing 60 kg, from a village situated on the outskirts of Ranchi. On June 3, Dhanbad police recovered 750 live cartridges of an INSAS rifle from a pond.
