Contractor robbed of cash near bank

A contractor, who withdrew cash from a bank to disburse salary to his employees, was allegedly robbed on Kilpauk Garden Road here on Tuesday.

According to police sources, R. Radhakrishnan (45) drew Rs. 1.5 lakh from a nationalised bank and was waiting for his car outside when a suspect who came on a motorcycle snatched his bag containing the cash and sped away. Investigators perused video footage recorded by the closed circuit television (CCTV) network and zeroed in on a youth who was identified by Radhakrishnan as the suspect.

Preliminary enquiries revealed that the suspect did not have an account in the branch. There was no armed guard or private security at the bank when the incident took place.
